

How to ask happy customers for honest Google reviews

Use this simple routine after completed jobs. The goal is to make it easy for satisfied customers to share their real experience.

When to ask	After the customer confirms they are satisfied, ideally right after the completed job or later the same day.
Who to ask	Real customers who actually used the service. Never ask strangers, friends, or paid reviewers.
What to say	Thank them first. Ask for an honest Google review. Make it easy with the QR code or direct link.
Follow-up	If they do not respond, send one friendly reminder after 2-3 days. Do not pressure them.
Never do this	Do not buy reviews, offer rewards for positive reviews, write reviews for customers, or hide negative feedback.

Simple script

Thank you again for choosing us. If you were happy with our service, we would really appreciate an honest Google review. It only takes a minute, and it helps other local customers find us.

Manager checklist

- Keep QR cards visible in the office, vehicle, or handover folder.
- Send review requests only after confirmed customer satisfaction.
- Check the tracker every Friday.
- Reply calmly and professionally to new reviews.
